It is important to read this entire document carefully before signing the Letter of Commitment. It is mandatory for all players and parents to sign prior to playing on a CHUSA All-Stars team.

When you join an All-Star team for the Chino Hills USA Baseball League (CHUSA), you are agreeing to the following:

- ❖ There is a non-refundable, one time fee of $50.00. This is used towards the cost of the uniforms.
- ❖ There may be additional costs, which are determined by the All-Star team.
- ❖ The All-Star team will play in the tournament hosted by CHUSA.
- ❖ Parents may have to work in the snack bar during the tournament hosted by CHUSA.
- ❖ The player and parents commit to coming to all practices and games. It is understood that things come up and that at times there is no way to work around it. This should be the exception - not the rule.
- ❖ All players, parents, coaches, and managers will abide by the spirit and rules of the Code of Conduct.

I understand by signing this agreement that I am committed to the team and the league. It is an honor and privilege to be an All-Star and I will treat it with the utmost respect.
